Balloting to Discover Whether They Will Accept Master's Proposals. Landon, Dec. 14.—The old unionists among to cked-out Clyde engineers are in favor of bringing the dispute with the masters to

The socialists, who are now dominant, re-opposed to a settlement unless it be on their terms.

Balloting on the question is now proceeding among the men at Glasgow and Greenock to determine whether or not there shall be a return to work.

Thus far the vote is adverse to accepting the masters' proposals.

The queen has become interested in the dispute, and it is reported that she has written to Lord James, who was selected as the chairman of the conference between the men and masters, to do his utmost when the conference resumes its shiftings to ob-
